THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

NOTIFICATION

No. P. 1603/2010.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 225 of the Constitution of India, the Hon’ble the Chief Justice and the Judges of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay are hereby pleased to direct that the following amendment shall be made to “The Bombay High Court Public Interest Litigation Rules, 2010” :—

A. The word “or” shall be added between the words “Chief Justice” and “of his nominee Judge” in clause (a) of Rule 4 of the Rules.

B. The following Rule 7A shall be added after the existing Rule 7 of the Rules :—

(7A) (i) In cases covered by clauses (d) and (e) of Rule 4, the Court may, in its discretion, direct the petitioner to deposit a sum, by way of security deposit, in the Court, which shall be subject to final or interim order of the Court.

(ii) If the Court finds that petition is vexatious, motivated or not pro-bono-publico, then the amount so deposited shall be forfeited and this shall be in addition to the exemplary costs, if any, which may be imposed by the Court.

C. The following clause shall be added after clause (b) of Rule 11 of the existing Rules :—

(c) The Court may, if it finds that Petition was frivolous or filed with oblique or ulterior motive, in its discretion, direct that Public Interest Litigation filed by such Petitioner/s shall not be entertained or registered by the Registry for such time which the Court may deem fit or proper. If the Court finds that Public Interest litigation filed by such person/s raises an important issue of public interest, then, in that case, the Court may appoint an amicus curiae to represent the petitioner/s and after such amicus curiae is appointed, may entertain the petition.

High Court of Judicature at Bombay, dated the 10th July 2015.
